Texas Center for Arts and Academics (TCA+A) is a fine arts nonprofit that manages two charter schools, two premier choirs, and three conservatories. Located in a hub of artistic innovation and industry in the heart of Fort Worth, our high-quality, fine arts education programs serve more than 1,000 youth across Tarrant County with interests and talents in theatre, music, visual art, and dance. By focusing on an arts-based academic worldview, we have been fostering artistic talents, cultural exposure, and creativity in our community since 1946.
